will forget what you said,
people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

❖ Our Lodge Page

Our Lodge page at <https://www.ourlodgepage.com> is a great way to stay in touch, stay up-to-date with all Lodge and surrounding events, and to pay dues. Your patience and understanding is appreciated as we learn to integrate this resource.

❖ Candidates

Ben Glade is an interested candidate that due to work currently commutes from Denver to Estes Park for meetings. The best contact I currently have for him is his Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/ben.glade.3>. If you have time it is requested that you reach out to him and get to know him. Remember brothers it is up to you to protect the west gate and that means confidently getting to know these gentlemen before they apply.

❖ Masonic Fun Fact

Where and when was the first Masonic Hall erected in America?
This one is tougher than it looks, the first building actually erected for a Masonic Meeting Hall was in Philadelphia in 1734, but it was never used due to a fire near the end of its construction. As a result the next time a building was actually erected as a meeting hall was in Philadelphia in 1755.
